THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE S.ANANDA REDDY

Writ Petition No.19271 of 2007

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed aggrieved by the action of the respondents in proposing to dispossess the petitioners from their lands forcibly for laying a road without acquiring the same or without taking their consent who are the owners of the lands in question.

The petitioners, who are eight in number, claim that they are the owners of small extents of land shown in para-2 of the affidavit situated at Nunna village, Vijayawada Rural Mandal. According to the petitioners, the respondents are proposing to lay a road in their lands by forcibly dispossessing them without acquiring the lands under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 or without taking their consent. Hence, the present writ petition.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader for Lands & Buildings, the writ petition is disposed of, at the admission stage, directing the respondents not to dispossess the petitioners from their lands for laying a road, unless and until they take possession of the lands of the petitioners under due process of law. No costs.
